

Considerations for Integration Decision

---

- 1) If the decision is integration there will be a need for additional consultation services in regards to employment law and the transition process
- 2) If the decision is to integration there will be a need to further identify the time frame and the process of staff transition.